Secretary's office.

Jack McFall came to see me.

Lewis Jones stopped in to say goodbye--he is leaving tonight for Tunis.

John Blandford, Director of the UN Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, came to see me with Mr. Gardiner of NEA.

Lunched in my office with Secretary Acheson. Carl Humelsine came in and talked to both of us about a proposed press release relating to the statement by a Customs official that State Department had issued orders Owen Lattimore not be allowed to leave the country.

Messrs. Thorp, Schaetzel and Sohm came for their regular meeting.

I saw the Secretary with Carl Humelsine on the Lattimore matter.

George Perkins stopped to see me about personnel matters.

I attended a meeting in the Secretary's office on Egypt, Tunisia, and the Middle East.

John Allison came to see me about who to put in the second job in our Embassy at Tokio.

Bill Foster telephoned me about a film Howard Hughes has made, the setting for which is Korea.

Attended a meeting in the Secretary's office regarding Tunisia as related to the Secretary's trip.
